INTRODUCTION TO THE VAST LANDSCAPE OF CANADIAN SCHOLARSHIPS FOR DOMESTIC STUDENTS

Scholarships in Canada can be broadly classified into the following categories:

- 1 Merit-based Scholarships: Awarded to students who have demonstrated exceptional academic, athletic, or artistic achievements.
- 2 Need-based Scholarships: Given to students based on their financial needs, these scholarships aim to bridge the gap between what a student can afford and the cost of education.
- 3 Community Service Scholarships: Awarded to students who display outstanding involvement in community service or volunteer work.
- 4 Industry-specific Scholarships: These scholarships are offered by organizations within specific industries, targeting students pursuing careers in those fields.

POPULAR SCHOLARSHIPS AND THEIR REQUIREMENTS

TD Scholarships for Community Leadership

Offered by TD Bank, this scholarship provides financial assistance to students who have demonstrated exceptional community leadership. The eligibility criteria include a minimum GPA of 75%, involvement in extracurricular activities, and a commitment to making a difference in their communities. The deadline for applications is usually in November.

Loran Award

This prestigious award, administered by the Loran Scholars Foundation, targets high school students who demonstrate character, commitment to service, and leadership potential. Applicants must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents and be in their final year of high school. The application deadline is typically in October.

RBC Students Leading Change Scholarship

Sponsored by the Royal Bank of Canada, this scholarship is open to students entering their first year of post-secondary education who have demonstrated leadership in community service or volunteer work. Applicants must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents and have a minimum GPA of 70%. The application deadline is generally in March.

The Schulich Leader Scholarships

These scholarships are awarded to exceptional high school graduates enrolling in a Science, Technology, Engineering, or Mathematics (STEM) program at one of the participating Canadian universities. Schulich Leader Scholarships are based on academic excellence, leadership, and financial need. The deadline for applications varies depending on the nomination process of each high school.

When applying for these popular Canadian scholarships, make sure to research their specific requirements, gather the necessary documents, and submit your application before the respective deadlines. By staying organized and proactive, you can increase your chances of securing financial aid for your education.

LESSER-KNOWN SCHOLARSHIP SOURCES

Aside from the popular scholarships, several lesser-known sources offer financial aid to Canadian students. These include:

Local community organizations:

Many local clubs, foundations, and non-profits offer scholarships to students from their communities.

Parent or family employer:

Some companies provide scholarships to the children of their employees.

Religious or cultural organizations:

These groups often award scholarships to students who are active members of their community.

STAYING ON TOP OF SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

To stay informed about scholarship opportunities, consider the following strategies:

- 1 Subscribe to newsletters and email alerts: Many organizations offer email updates about scholarship opportunities and deadlines.

- 2 Join online forums and social media groups: Participate in online communities where students share information about scholarships and application tips.

- 3 Connect with your school's guidance counsellor: They can provide information about scholarships and offer support during the application process.

By following this guide and adopting a proactive approach, Canadian domestic students can successfully navigate the world of scholarships and secure financial aid to support their education. Remember, every scholarship you receive brings you one step closer to achieving your academic and career goals. So, start your search today and make your dreams a reality!

Colleges and Universities Scholarships:

- University of Saskatchewan Entrance Scholarships

The University of Saskatchewan offers numerous scholarships, bursaries, and awards to help students fund their education. Scholarships are merit-based and awarded for academic achievements, while bursaries are need-based and granted on the basis of financial need. Awards typically recognize specific accomplishments or qualities in a student. To apply, students need to create an account on the university's Scholarship and Bursary Portal. Incoming high school students are automatically considered for some awards upon applying for admission. It is important to check the application deadlines and requirements for each opportunity to maximize chances of receiving funding.

- University of Regina Entrance Scholarships

The University of Regina offers a variety of entrance scholarships for undergraduate students entering directly from high school to an undergraduate degree program. These scholarships aim to support academic excellence and provide financial assistance to deserving students. One of the prominent scholarships is the UR Circle of Scholars Entrance Scholarship. This scholarship offers $20,000 ($5,000 x 4 years) for top international students and up to 10 awards for top domestic students in identified regions within Canada. To be eligible for this scholarship, students must apply for early admission by March 15 and have a minimum early admission average of 90%. To maintain the scholarship, recipients must register and remain registered in a minimum of 9 credit hours per term and achieve a minimum sessional GPA of 80% on at least 24 credit hours to renew the scholarship for up to three additional years.

In addition to the UR Circle of Scholars Entrance Scholarship, the University of Regina also offers entrance scholarships based on early admission averages. Students with an early admission average of 95% or higher can receive $3,000, while those with an average of 93-94.99% can receive $1,500, and students with an average of 90-92.99% are eligible for a $1,000 scholarship. To be considered for these scholarships, students must apply for early admission by March 15 and be domestic students completing high school at the time of admission. To retain any of these entrance scholarships, students must register and remain registered in a minimum of 9 credit hours at the University of Regina throughout the Fall term, up to and including the last day of classes. This ensures that students continue to meet the necessary requirements and maintain their academic performance to be eligible for scholarship renewal.

Corporations and Businesses Scholarships:

- Nutrien Indigenous Youth Financial Management Awards

Despite the numerous opportunities and resources available for those interested in this career path, few Indigenous youth pursue financial management education after completing high school. To address this issue, AFOA Canada partnered with Nutrien to create the Annual Nutrien Indigenous Youth Financial Management Awards. Winners of these awards gain the opportunity to attend AFOA Canada's National Conference and participate in a tailored Youth program that introduces them to careers in Indigenous finance and management. Additionally, recipients become eligible for a scholarship worth up to $5,000.

- Conexus Credit Union Scholarships

The Conexus Youth Leadership Award recognizes and rewards high school students in Saskatchewan who demonstrate exceptional leadership qualities, academic performance, and commitment to their communities. The award aims to support students as they pursue post-secondary education and develop into future leaders. Each year, Conexus awards ten $1,500 scholarships to deserving students across the province. Applicants must be Saskatchewan residents, enrolled in grade 12, and planning to attend a post-secondary institution in the province. Applications are evaluated based on community involvement, leadership skills, and academic achievements.

Non-profit Organizations and Foundations Scholarships:

NOVA SCOTIA

Federal and Provincial Government Scholarships:

- Nova Scotia Student Assistance

The Nova Scotia Student Assistance program offers loans and grants for full-time studies, with a single application covering both provincial and federal funding. The basic criteria are the same for both types of funding, while some grants have additional criteria for specific groups of students. Grants do not need to be repaid, but loans must be repaid starting six months after leaving school, at which point they also begin to accumulate interest.

- Nova Scotia Power Scholarships

Nova Scotia Power, in partnership with the provincial government, offers several scholarships to support post-secondary students in the province. These scholarships aim to promote education and employment opportunities for youth in Nova Scotia, particularly those pursuing careers in fields related to the energy industry. Some of the scholarships provided by Nova Scotia Power include:

○ African Nova Scotian Emerging Leaders: This scholarship aims to support African Nova Scotian students who demonstrate strong leadership skills, academic excellence, and community involvement. It is awarded to students pursuing post-secondary education in any field of study at a recognized university or college.

○ Mi'kmaq Bursary: This bursary is designed to provide financial assistance to Mi'kmaq students attending a recognized university or college in Nova Scotia. The bursary supports students pursuing post-secondary education in any field of study, with a focus on those who demonstrate financial need, academic achievement, and community involvement.

○ Nova Scotia Power Family Scholarship: This scholarship is available to children of Nova Scotia Power employees and retirees. It recognizes students who excel academically, display strong leadership skills, and are actively involved in their communities. The scholarship supports students pursuing post-secondary education in any field of study at a recognized university or college.

Federal and Provincial Government Scholarships:

○ Women in Trades, Engineering & Technology: This scholarship is dedicated to supporting women pursuing careers in trades, engineering, and technology fields. It is awarded to female students attending a recognized university or college in Nova Scotia and enrolled in an eligible program related to trades, engineering, or technology. The scholarship aims to encourage more women to enter these traditionally male-dominated fields and promote gender diversity within the industry.

To be considered for a Nova Scotia Power scholarship, applicants must demonstrate strong academic performance, leadership skills, and community involvement.

Additionally, they must be residents of Nova Scotia and enrolled in a full-time post-secondary program.

Colleges and Universities Scholarships:

- Dalhousie University Entrance Scholarships

Dalhousie University allocates millions of dollars annually to scholarships and bursaries for incoming students, with over 2,000 entrance awards available through the General Entrance Award application. Entrance awards and scholarships target high school students applying directly to Dalhousie or those who haven't completed any transferable post-secondary studies. To be considered for most entrance awards and bursaries, candidates must complete the General Entrance Award application. Selection is based on factors such as academic performance, leadership, extracurricular activities, community service, financial need, and cultural identity. Note that some awards require separate applications. Eligibility typically requires a minimum 80% admission average or 26 predicted/anticipated IB Diploma points. The average is calculated using the five courses required for the student's chosen program. Both domestic and international students can apply. For First Nations and Indigenous Black Student Scholarships, the admissions average is not considered.

- Saint Mary's University Entrance Scholarships

Saint Mary's University offers over $15.7 million in scholarships, bursaries, and awards annually to support incoming students. These financial aids recognize academic excellence, leadership, community involvement, and other achievements and are available for both domestic and international students. Students with an admission average of 85% or higher are automatically considered for Renewable Entrance Scholarships if they apply and are admitted to the university by March 1. In addition to these scholarships, Saint Mary's also offers Admissions Awards such as Presidential and Santamarian scholarships, which require a completed undergraduate application and acceptance by March 1. Scholarship eligibility criteria vary and may include community involvement, extracurricular activities, academic achievement, or financial need. The application deadline for Admissions Awards is March 1. Some scholarships, such as the Presidential/Presidential International Baccalaureate/Santamarian Scholarships and Sobey National Innovator Scholarships, require additional application materials, including essays, resumes, and letters of recommendation. These scholarships have specific renewal requirements based on maintaining a certain GPA. Other awards, like the Harrison McCain Scholarship/Bursary, Techsploration Science Award, The Bahamas Ministry of Education / Saint Mary's University Scholarship, and David Wang Scholarship, require separate applications and have unique eligibility criteria.

Colleges and Universities Scholarships:

- St. Francis Xavier University Entrance Scholarships

Applicants with an average of 85% or higher are considered for entrance scholarships. There are various scholarships available, ranging from $5,000 to $80,000, based on the applicant's average, program, and other eligibility criteria such as leadership, community service, and financial need. Some scholarships are renewable for up to four years. Major and application-based scholarships require submission of Grade 12 transcripts by March 1. Additional scholarships are available specifically for Nova Scotia residents, with varying eligibility requirements and award values. For all scholarships, final value is based on five Grade 12 courses used to meet admission requirements for the respective program.

- Acadia University Entrance Scholarships

Acadia University offers entrance scholarships to Canadian and international students applying for undergraduate programs. Scholarships range from $4,500 to $10,000 over four years, with additional scholarships valued up to $60,000. To apply, submit your admission application and required documentation. Eligible students will receive an initial scholarship offer in their acceptance letter. Local and specialized scholarships require separate application forms.

- Cape Breton University Entrance Scholarships

Cape Breton University offers Major Entrance Scholarships ranging from $10,000 to $30,000, with yearly amounts between $2,500 and $7,500. Additional entrance scholarships and bursaries are available, with values from $500 to $5,000 per year. Academic In-Course Scholarships are awarded after each Fall and Winter semester based on credit hours and a minimum average of 80%. Bursaries are available for students with financial need, including Entrance Bursaries for incoming students, which require an application and income tax documentation.

NOVA SCOTIA

2 Colleges and Universities Scholarships:

- Mount Saint Vincent University Entrance Scholarships

Entrance scholarships at Mount Saint Vincent University are automatically considered for qualified applicants who submit a complete application for admission by March 1. High school graduates within one year of graduation and who have not attended a post-secondary institution are eligible. The scholarship average is calculated using the applicant's top five Grade 12 academic grades, including English. If there are not enough Grade 12 grades, top Grade 11 academic grades are used. One percentage point is added to the average for each IB, AP, or advanced level course.

There are numerous entrance scholarships available, such as the 125th Anniversary Mount Saint Vincent Alumni Association Entrance Scholarship, Aramark Canada Ltd. Scholarship, Beacon Securities Endowed Scholarship, Beta Sigma Phi Endowed Scholarship, and many more. These scholarships cater to various fields of study, backgrounds, and interests, and aim to support students in their pursuit of higher education.

High school applicants with an average of 80% or more who apply before March 1 are eligible for various scholarships at Mount Saint Vincent University. These scholarships are awarded based on factors such as academic achievement, community involvement, leadership qualities, and financial need. Some scholarships require supplemental documentation, including resumes, letters demonstrating financial need, and statements of community involvement. Deadlines for application materials vary, but most are due by March 1. A limited number of prestigious President's Scholarships are also available to top applicants who demonstrate high academic achievement and contributions to their school or community.

Colleges and Universities Scholarships:

- Nova Scotia Community College (NSCC) Entrance Scholarships

Nova Scotia Community College (NSCC) offers over $3 million in scholarships, bursaries, and awards annually to support students. These financial aids are available through the NSCC Foundation, student associations, and generous donors. Awards may be specific to a campus, program, or year of study and are open to both new and returning students. Criteria for these awards include financial need, leadership, volunteer experience, career interests, and academic standing. Types of financial supports available at NSCC include high school entrance awards, scholarships, bursaries and awards, Sponsor-a-Student awards, urgent aid, and the African Canadian Emergency Fund. High school entrance awards cover first-year tuition costs for outstanding students entering certificate or diploma programs directly from a Nova Scotia high school. Current students and confirmed applicants can apply for awards through the Student Awards Portal, while prospective students can apply for select awards before applying to NSCC. The majority of awards are offered during the spring and fall award cycles, with eligibility depending on when a student's program begins.

Federal and Provincial Government Scholarships:

- George Coles Bursary

The Province of Prince Edward Island offers the George Coles Bursary (GCB) to help Island students with post-secondary expenses such as tuition, books, fees, and living expenses. The non-repayable bursary is automatically awarded to eligible students attending a publicly funded post-secondary institution in PEI, including the University of Prince Edward Island, Holland College, Maritime Christian College, and Collège de l'Île. To be eligible, students must be PEI residents, Canadian citizens, or permanent residents, enrolled full-time in their first degree, diploma, or certificate program, and not have previously received the bursary for the same year of standing. The amount awarded varies based on the institution attended, from $2,600 annually at UPEI and Maritime Christian College up to a maximum of $10,400, to varying amounts at Holland College or Collège de l'Île based on individual tuition costs.

The bursary is divided into up to four yearly payments corresponding to the student's year of standing. Students do not need to apply for the bursary, as Student Financial Services works directly with PEI's public post-secondary institutions to determine eligibility. However, students are responsible for ensuring their information is correct on their applications and student accounts. The bursary is credited to the student's school account, and any credit balance can be used for future tuition and fee payments or requested as a refund.

Federal and Provincial Government Scholarships:

- Island Skills Awards

The Island Skills Award is a financial assistance program for eligible Island students enrolled full-time in a post-secondary degree, diploma, or certificate program at Holland College or Collège Acadie î.-P.-É for at least 24 continuous weeks. The award provides $1,000 in each student's first, second, and third year of study. There is no application process, as the school determines eligibility and automatically posts the award to the student's account in January of the current academic year. To be eligible, students must meet specific criteria, including being a resident of PEI, not receiving financial support from third-party agencies or government departments, and providing their Social Insurance Number. The Island Skills Award aims to recognize the value of post-secondary education, invest in Island students, encourage them to continue their studies in Prince Edward Island, and promote the development of publicly funded post-secondary institutions in the region. Students who believe they are eligible but have not received the award can submit an appeal form by August 31 of their eligible year. Payments are issued directly to the post-secondary institution by Student Financial Services, Department of Innovation and Advanced Learning.

Colleges and Universities Scholarships:

- University of Prince Edward Island (UPEI) Entrance Scholarships

Besides the primary Entrance Award Cycle at UPEI, there are substantial awards funded by donors that necessitate distinct applications and may require supplementary documents like personal statements or recommendation letters. These scholarships have deadlines on March 1 and May 1, such as Harrison McCain Scholarships, Joyce Family Foundation Renewable Awards, and E. Marion and Donald N. MacKenzie Entrance Scholarship in Nursing. Incoming high school students at UPEI are automatically evaluated for Guaranteed Entrance Scholarships upon submitting their university application.

Colleges and Universities Scholarships:

- Holland College Entrance Scholarships

All Holland College applicants and students can apply for scholarships, bursaries, and awards, with over $500,000 available annually. To apply for an entrance award, students need an active Holland College application. To apply, sign in using your personal email address and complete the general application. You will be automatically matched to awards based on your application and student data. Additional award opportunities may require more information.

- Collège de l'Île Entrance Scholarships

Collège de l'Île offers various entrance scholarships to its students each year, including a $1,000 scholarship for a student from each high school in Prince Edward Island. Additional scholarships are available for adult students returning to studies, students from outside PEI, and those enrolled in specific programs. Eligibility for some scholarships varies based on the place of residence, and applicants must be accepted into a full-time program at the college level without funding from other sources.

Potential candidates are notified about the availability of these scholarships at least two weeks before the deadline. A selection committee reviews the responses provided on the application form and may conduct short interviews with the candidates to determine the recipients of the scholarships.

Corporations and Businesses Scholarships:

- PEI Credit Unions Scholarships

Provincial Credit Union is dedicated to supporting local youth in their post-secondary education by offering 22 scholarships in four categories for grade 12 students on Prince Edward Island planning to attend a recognized post-secondary institution in the fall of 2023. The scholarships include Building Your Community, Community Leadership, Classic, and Loyal 2 Local, ranging from $500 to $2,000 each. To be eligible, applicants or their parents/legal guardians must be members of Provincial Credit Union for at least six months, and they must plan to attend a recognized university or college for the 2023-2024 school year. Students can apply for multiple scholarships by completing the online application form for each scholarship they wish to apply for, but only one scholarship will be awarded per individual.

Non-profit Organizations and Foundations Scholarships:

- PEI Roadrunners Club Scholarships (for students involved in the running community)

The PEI Roadrunners Club offers scholarships to high school students in Prince Edward Island who are actively involved in the running community. These scholarships are designed to support students pursuing post-secondary education and recognize their dedication to the sport of running and commitment to a healthy lifestyle. The club offers two $200 bursaries, named in memory of Jacob Simmons. Eligible applicants must be graduating from a PEI high school, enrolling in college or university in the fall, and have participated in running events during grade 12.
